

A sensorial Tour through Prosecco Superiore DOCG hills

Lose yourself through sweet hills, vineyards, vegetable gardens, olive trees...fortresses, castles and abbeys in the “Conegliano-Valdobbiadene Primavera del Prosecco docg” hills.

10.00 am: meeting at the “G. B. Cerletti” wine school in Conegliano. Built in 1976, thanks to cooperation between the chemist A. Carpenè and the agronomist and oenologist G. B. Cerletti, it's the oldest wine school in Italy. The wine school has a great renown in Italy and it counts more than 1200 students. Guided visit of school and wine cellar, with wine tasting at the “Bottega del vino”.

12.00 am: Departure by G.T. Bus, reserved for the tour through the Prosecco Superiore Docg hills.

12.30 am: Lunch with typical food (beverage included).

02.00 pm: Continuation of the tour along the Prosecco Road. Visit of the ancient “Pieve” in San Pietro di Feletto (15th-13th century frescos, in particular the “Cristo della domenica”). Depart to Refrontolo for the visit of the “Molinetto della Croda” (17th century mill, still working). Transfer to Follina and tour of the majestic abbey of Santa Maria.

04.00 pm: Tour with wine tasting in a wine cellar of the Prosecco Superiore docg area, that take part to the producers association “Consorzio di Tutela del Conegliano Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore”.

05.00 pm: Return in Conegliano and arrival at 5.30 pm.
